

A 20x20 grid of 400 squares. Each square contains a three-armed Y-shaped structure. The structures are arranged in a repeating pattern of four groups of 10, each group containing a different color (red, green, blue, and yellow) and a different orientation (up, down, left, right). The grid is labeled with numbers 1 through 20 on both the top and left sides.